DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 9 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Dale et al (US 2,745,497) (see "template" 10 including tubular inlet leg 11; tubular main outlet leg" 21; " tubular offset outlet leg" 17 and column 3, lines 63-71).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McNair et al (US 5,322,127) in view of Austin et al (US 4,850,431).

McNair et al shows in Figures 7C-7D, 8A-8B, 9C and 16B-16C a template including a tubular inlet leg, a tubular main outlet leg and a tubular offset outlet leg. McNair et al further disclose in column 4, lines 20-23,, column 5, lines 11-16, column 11, lines 57-65, column 12, lines 62-68 and column 13, lines 24-30 that the "template" in combination with the diverter guide / plug (col. 19, lines 9-11) allows isolation of each lateral well bore for re-entry or simulation work. McNair et al does not disclose whether "stimulation work" includes "pressure stimulation". However, it is well known in the art that "stimulation work" commonly includes fracturing a formation with a pressurized fluid from the surface as evidenced by Austin et al.(see column 1, lines 16-19 and column 4, lines 58-64).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 10-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. Claims 14-20 are allowed.

Priority

7. Applicant has not complied with one or more conditions for receiving the benefit of an earlier filing date under 35 U.S.C. 120 as follows:

An application in which the benefits of an earlier application are desired must contain a specific reference to the prior application(s) in the first sentence of the specification or in an application data sheet (37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) and (a)(5)). The specific reference to any prior nonprovisional application must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) between the applications except when the reference is to a prior application of a CPA assigned the same application number.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
